

Please do not relax the no-call regulations. It has been very nice not to have our meals interrupted with calls. We pay for the right to have a phone every month and I don't feel we should be inundated with unwanted phone calls.